THE ONLY LOYAL BODY.

Decision of Masonic Congress as to Legal Standing.

The congress called to meet in Washington met pursuant to that call in the Masonic Temple, Green's Hall, 1719 Pennsylvania avenue n. w., Washington, D. C., July 10 and 11, 1908. In the absence of Dr. McGhee, of Alabama, the president of the congress, Bishop J. B. Thornton—Grand Master of the State of New York—convened the session; after which Brother H. C. Scott, Grand Master of the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of the District of Columbia (Inc.) was chosen president, assisted by Brother J. B. Thornton, of New York.

The most important business of the session was setting the boundaries of legal Free Masonry in the United States of America and the denouncing of bogus, illegal and clandestine Masons.

The congress also declared by vote that the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge (Inc.), of which Brother H. C. Scott is Grand Master, is the only legal body of Free Masons among colored people in the District of Columbia, and with the Masonic world recognized no other colored Masons in the District of Columbia.

See Minutes of the congress and the Masonic Journal of the New York jurisdiction.

NEGRO CAMPAIGN BOOKS.

If all the rumors about Negro campaign text-books that are flying about Washington are true, half of the colored male population is at work on a campaign book, and expect to get rich quick on it. It is reported that Cy Adams, Assistant Register of the Treasury, has been cooped up in his room for two weeks writing one; McKay is hard at work on one; Harry Clark has one ready for the printer, and there is a long list of others writing hot stuff. It begins to look like there will be a separate colored campaign book for every colored voter, if rumors be true. Of course the colored newspapers will be expected to reproduce all this dope that these colored campaign authors get paid for. Gee, ain't it great to be an author of a Negro campaign book? But won't the market be overstocked. Won't there be an overproduction? And over in New York, out in Illinois and Indiana,
